

SIXTH ANNUAL JERRY WELLS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP HALTER FUTURITY RESULTS

The sixth annual Jerry Wells Memorial Scholarship Halter Futurity for yearling Quarter Horses was held on Saturday, May 31, as special World Conformation Horse Association event during the prestigious Oklahoma Quarter Horse Association's annual Redbud Spectacular Horse Show at the State Fairgrounds Arena in Oklahoma City. Presenting Sponsor was the Equine Chronicle, Tom and Amy Grabe, Ocala, Florida.

If you remember, last year the Futurity was cancelled at the last minute because of the tornado and torrential rains that hit the Fairgrounds on May 31st.

Platinum sponsors for the show were Steve and Kathy Headley, Bloomington, Indiana, with a donation of $10,000.

Any WCHA event requires certified WCHA judges. Judge for the adult portion of the show was Russ Smith, Whitesboro, TX. Smith is also a carded AQHA judge. Youth classes were judged by newly carded WCHA judge Jerri Harmon, Decatur, MS.

After the classes for yearling stallions, geldings and fillies were completed, the first place winner of these classes were returned to the arena to be judged for Best Of Show. A second judge, also a WCHA judge, was randomly selected from the audience to join Smith in selecting the winner. That judge was Jason Smith, Whitesboro, TX.

Champion and Reserve Champion winners of each class were presented trophies and Jerry Wells memorial medallions. Best of Show winner received a trophy and a check for $1000. These winners had pictures taken with Betty, the owner of the horse, the sponsor for that class, and any friends and family they wished in the picture. Pictures were by K C Montgomery.

The Futurity had 23 horses making 70 entries this year. Total payout was $30,000 in cash and prizes, including the $500, $1500, and $2000 sponsorship monies for each class, $1000 for Best of Show, plus entry fees, minus 10% of each entry fee reserved for the Jerry Wells Memorial Scholarship fund. All prize money was paid out following the completion of the show.

Organizers for the Jerry Wells Memorial Scholarship Futurity are Betty Wells, Norman, widow of Jerry Wells, Luke Castle, Castle Ranch, Wayne, and Nova Boyd, Purcell. Office staff included Judy Green, Purcell, and Judy Jordan, Pilot Point, TX. Mike Fester, Purcell, picked up the judge from the hotel the morning of the show. Luke Castle was arena coordinator.

Ring Stewards were Ron McMllian, Collinsville, OK and Mike Fester, Purcell. Gate man was Wayne Jordan, Pilot Point, TX. Luke Castle and Wayne Halvorson are Oklahoma Quarter Horse Association Futurity Committee chairmen.

. Announcer was Tom Davies, Olathe, KS. Music guru and announcer's assistant was Abbi Castle.

The show opened with the National Anthem, then exhibitors and audience gave the Pledge of Allegiance. Wayne Jordan gave the opening prayer.

Betty Wells welcomed everyone to the show and expressed her appreciation to all exhibitors, owners, sponsors and donors. She introduced the Jerry Wells Memorial Scholarship winners for this year: Austin Halvorson, Guthrie and Brittney Barr, Ada. She introduced current WCHA President, Tim Finkenbinder and AQHA steward and this year's Professional Horseman of the Year, Clark Parker. Tim Finkenbinder gave a short presentation on WCHA goals and activities.

During each class, exhibitor numbers were drawn by a member of the audience to receive special prizes. Those prized included 4 Jerry Wells Futurity Hat Cans from Shorty's Caboy Hattery; four $50 gift certificates from Tener's; a $250 gift certificate from Showtime Show Clothing, Purcell; a cowboy gear bag from Bill Flueckiger, Purcell; two one-night stays at the Oklahoma City Embassy Suites hotel; three $100 gift certificates from Good Ride; three one-page ads from Go Horse Show.com Go Mag; WCHA halters for each class winner, WCHA gift bags for each exhibitor, WCHA t-shirts for each exhibitor and a wash-your-horse bucket from Purcell Farm and Ranch Supply. Every exhibitor was given $100 cash as they showed.

Each exhibitor received a Jerry Wells Memorial tote bag from Betty Wells when they checked in, which was full of goodies from Betty, Earl's Rib Palace, Purcell Register, Judd Little Ranch, McClain Bank, Smokin Joe's BBQ, Nova Boyd, and the Futurity Committee.

Official Photographer for the Futurity was K C Montgomery, Fairview, OK. Official Hotel was Embassy Suites, Oklahoma City. Official Restaurant was Earl's Rib Palace, Oklahoma City.

Donors as Friends of Jerry Wells included: from 2013 - Arnold and Ina Ginsberg, Ken and Nancy Berry, Ivan Harder, Al Schoulz, Dick and Debbie Donnelly, John and Barbara Hoffer, Royal Vista Southwest, Xylo of Oklahoma, Purcell Municipal Hospital, Joey and Patty Shortino, Jack and Pam Brizendine and Friends, Brooks Farms, Dac, Inc, Josh Weakley, Agency Specialists of New York-Gus and Kayleen Holliday, Jason and Julie Smith, Dave, Coleen and Brooke Klimek, and Oklahoma City Equine Clinic. Those donors from 2014 included John and Barbara Hoffer, First American Bank, Norman, Purcell Municipal Hospital, Don and Joetta Bell, Rob Young's Northwest Insurance, Purcell, Pait Show Horses and Charles and Leasa Haselden.

A silent auction was held during the show, and included items donated from individuals and businesses from Purcell and the surrounding area. Those donating were: P&K Equipment, Norman; Turner's Drug, Purcell; Precision Trailer, Purcell; Mason's Pecans and Peanuts, Norman; along with items from Santa Fe Company, OKC, Debra Donnelly, La Port City, IA; MGM Designs, Midwest City, Betty Wells and Nova Boyd.

The Jerry Wells Memorial Scholarship Halter Futurity will continue to be an annual event. Watch for it to be bigger and better in 2015. Our goal is to have a venue in which exhibitors can come and show, no matter if they are trainers, non pros or youth; if they have shown all their life or are just getting started.

The Futurity committee wishes to thank OQHA, WCHA and AQHA, our presenting sponsor, The Equine Chronicle, our wonderful class sponsors, and everyone who helped in any way to make this show such a financial and enjoyable success. Without each and everyone of you, the Futurity would not happen.
